$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Kidneys, Free

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles. Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or two to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the feverish and the lack-of-the-head aches; the stiffness and pain in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the dependency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing the prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 1491 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has given healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

Next Saturday the Y. M. C. A. is planning to hold an "open house" for ladies and gentlemen. This is to be the last affair of its kind of the season. Several successful ones have been held during the year, with athletics, musical and literary programs as their features. This promises to collapse them all.

It will also be the nature of a farewell to Prof. Thomas O'Hara, who winds up his engagement as boxing instructor, during which time he has made many friends who will be sorry to see him go. Prof. O'Hara will appear in a boxing match with his partner, Matt Helther, for the final number of the program, which looks by his pupils will also be scheduled.

Joe Dorris and Roy McAllister will furnish the wrestling, and of the entertainment, with possibly another bout. Music will also be provided, as well as a fencing exhibition and some fancy stunts. The affair will wind up with a volley-ball match.

The "Ruffin Drug" opened for business yesterday morning and a master and better appointed drug store cannot be found in this city. The elaborate fixtures which were manufactured especially for the building in which they are installed have been re-varnished and look as good as new. These fixtures are pronounced by many traveling men to be the finest and most artistic in the territory. Mr. Ruffin will receive a shipment of goods in the early part of next week which will make his stock of drugs complete. He will carry a full line of prescription goods and patent medicines; also rubber goods, kodaks and films, toilet articles and sundries. He carries a full line of leather goods and stationery which will match up with the best and most artistic. The occupying ground floor now used for the Democratic club headquarters. They will have a much better opportunity in the new location to display their fine lines of gas-stoves and other cooking apparatus, as well as heaters, etc.

Mr. Ruffin, the owner, is a druggist of thirty years experience and at that he claims to know nothing but drugs and the filling of prescriptions. He has as his assistant Geo. K. Wooten of Douglas who is a registered pharmacist and comes to the "Ruffin Drug" with the best of recommendations.

MUSIC GALORE UP AND DOWN CANYON

There were all kinds of music in air last evening, all the way from Warren to Bisbee. At the Warren fair park the newly organized C. & A. band gave a delightful concert lasting a couple of hours, the affair being largely attended and the music appreciated.

Up town the Copper Queen band serenaded on the streets, playing on Main street principally, to a large crowd, anxious to hear electric returns and gather a little music on the side.

The other concert was furnished at the Royal cafe, where the ladies of St. John's Episcopal church served supper. The L. S. & P. band was stationed in the cafe and discoursed selections all during the supper hour, and as they did not cease serving until after 9 o'clock, they had a long session of it.

HENKEL SUPPLIED DIAMOND RING

The $300 diamond ring which was given in the Review International Star Popularity Contest was bought from C. M. Henkel, the popular Main street jeweler and optician. The ring was not a special order, but was furnished from his stock. It was on display for several days at Henkel's store and many who called to see it pronounced it one of the most beautiful stones they had ever seen. It weighs about a karat, and a half, and attracted many people to the place for a gaze at it. It was also displayed in Douglas and Tucson and was as much admired in both those places as here.

GAME TODAY FOR A PURSE OF $60

For a purse of $60, the Copper Queen store and Shattuck mine teams will have another battle this morning at 10 o'clock on the Warren diamond. They fought last Sunday also, the Queen boys winning, 13 to 10. The Shattucks, however, claim they have the best team and yesterday issued their bet, with the money behind it, which the store chaps quickly accepted.

Foster and Ryan will be the battery for the miners. For the Queens, Sullivan will officiate, with D. D. Rostin catching. Others in the Queen line-up will be Callahan, first; Elair, second; McKenna, short; McDonald, third; Dorris, McAllister and Brown in the outfield.

Who the umpire will be has not been decided. Nobody wants the job. It took two last Sunday and they claim they'll never officiate again.

Taken to Hospital.
Mrs. H. J. Adams of Warren was taken to the Copper Queen hospital at Friday afternoon.

KUIKKA IS FINED $35 BY MURPHY

For maintaining a disorderly road house, Jack Kuikka, a Finlander, proprietor of the Pike saloon at Lowell, was fined $35 and costs by Justice Murphy yesterday.

His arrest was the result of a free-for-all fight of about a week ago which, following a nightly occurrence of such orgies, brought about a raid by Deputy Sheriff Bauer. He arrested half a dozen, but one or two got away, among them Nick Lastila, who a night or so later bit off three fingers of his wife's hand and is now wanted for assault with attempt to kill.

Lastila was captured later on the evening of the raid, however, and locked up charged with being drunk and disorderly. He and Kuikka were doing all the fighting at the Pike saloon. Lastila was assessed $7.50, which he endeavored to throw at Judge Murphy. He was made to understand the respect due the court and picked up the money, handing it over gently as a lamb.

On his second charge, however, Lastila had not been located, though the officers hope to have him in custody within a day or two.

STARTS ROUGH HOUSE, ENDS UP IN JAIL

Starting a "rough house" in the Leader saloon early yesterday morning, a man giving his name as E. Kelly is locked up at the Lowell jail on a charge of assault.

He was captured by Deputy Sheriff Bauer after beating up several persons in the saloon and smashing a window. He led the officer a merry chase, however, and was not run down until past the Junction shaft, amid a pile of rocks. As Bauer made the final grab to get him he dodged and carried the officer with him on a rolling exhibition down a steep embankment.

As it happened, the deputy was clad in a brand new suit of clothes, recently received from the tailors, and the garments were completely ruined in the tussle which landed Kelly behind the bars. Bauer also struck his knee on a projecting rock and yesterday afternoon walked with a limp.

Kelly is alleged to have entered the Leader saloon and, without being acquainted with anyone there, proceeded to pick a fight with a man who, with several others, was drinking at the bar. The affair became general and Kelly, instead of hitting a man an intended blow, shot his fist and half his body, through the front window. He then kept on running until the officer got him. He will be given a hearing tomorrow.
